

Terms for refunding

The following conditions apply to the refund scheme:

Cancelling the registration or adjusting registrations is possible up to and including the latest registration date (September 25th, 2020). Full refund of registration fees, minus € 15 administration costs, is possible up to this date (September 25th, 2020). After the expiry of the registration deadline, a full refund (minus € 15 administration costs) of the registration fee is no longer possible.

Until October 2nd, 2020, a week before the event, it is possible to get a refund for reservations for food, accommodation, cycling and car vignette. Until then, it is also possible to report any changes to these reservations.

After the expiration of October 2nd, 2020, it is no longer possible to claim a refund of the total amount paid for the event, this includes registration fees and reservations. The fully paid amount will be reduced by the costs already incurred to enable the team to participate, the remaining amount can be refunded.

In connection with Covid-19, the following additional conditions apply:

When a team leader cancels enrolment and any reservations in connection with Covid-19, the above conditions apply.

Should the event be cancelled in connection with Covid-19, the costs will be refunded following the above arrangements. This means that the amount of the registration fee will be refunded, minus the € 15 administration fee, regardless of the cancellation date.
